

shall be for the delinquent tax of 1863, together with the delinquent county tax so added, and such sale shall be as valid and binding as if no such relieved tax had been added thereto: provided, that in all cases where there is delinquent tax of the relieved tax against lands not returned delinquent for the taxes of the year 1863, the clerk of the county board of supervisors shall make lists, by towns, of such lands, with the proper amount of the delinquent tax of the relieved tax set opposite each such description, and shall transmit such lists to the town clerks of said county, at the time of certifying to said town clerks the amount of state, county and other taxes levied on such towns for the year 1864; and said clerks shall carry such relieved county tax out in the assessment roll for said year, along with the other taxes, (in a column by itself,) and said tax shall be collected and in all respects treated as other county taxes; and the county tax on personal property for the year 1862, remaining unpaid at the time of such sale in September, 1864, shall thereafter be collected the same as other delinquent taxes on personal property are collected.

SECTION 10. The county board of supervisors of said county are hereby authorized to audit all claims of persons who paid the full amount of county tax levied in said county in the year 1862, and to pay such persons all excess by them paid over the legal portion of said county tax. ^{Full paid taxes 1862.}

SECTION 11. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 19, 1864.
