[Published February 13, 1864.]

AN ACT to extend the time for the collection of taxes in the town of Port Washington, in the county of Ozaukee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The time for the collection of taxes in the town of Port Washington, in the county of Ozaukee, levied for the year one thousand eight hundred and sixty-three, is hereby extended to the last Monday in March, one thousand eight hundred and sixty-four: provided, that nothing in this act shall be so construed as to prevent the treasurer of said town from collecting and paying over to the county treasurer of said county the state tax assessed for said town; and provided, that the time for the payment of said state tax is not extended or in any way affected by this act.

Time extended to March 28.

SECTION 2. The town treasurer of said town shall have the same power and authority to proceed in the collection of the taxes mentioned in the assessment roll and warrant in said town, after as before such extension of the time for the collection thereof; and said town treasurer may make his return to the county treasurer of said county at any time before the said last Monday in March, A. D. 1864, anything in the said warrant to the contrary notwithstanding.

Power of treasurer.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 9, 1864.
