

CHAPTER 34.

[Published February 12, 1864.]

AN ACT to authorize the holding of a special term of the circuit court in and for the tenth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Special term.

SECTION 1. There shall be held by the circuit judge of the tenth judicial circuit, a special term in and for said circuit, at the court house in the city of Appleton, in the county of Outagamie, on the fourth Tuesday in February, 1864, to commence at two o'clock on said day, for the transaction of all business pending in any and every county in said circuit that may be transacted thereat without the intervention of a jury; and all such business may be heard and disposed of at said special term with the same force and effect as it may now be heard and disposed of in the county in which the causes or matters are pending.

Business that may be disposed of.

No other notice required.

SECTION 2. No notice of the holding of said special term shall be required other than the passage and publication of this act.

SECTION 3. This act shall be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 10, 1864.

CHAPTER 35.

[Published February 15, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend section two of chapter 153 of the private and local laws of 1857, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Elkhorn."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Supervisors to be sworn viewers.

SECTION 1. Section two of chapter one hundred and fifty-three of the private and local laws of 1857, entitled "an act to incorporate the village of Elkhorn," is hereby amended, by adding thereto, immediately following the fifteenth subdivision of said section, the following: "The supervisors of said village shall be severally fence viewers in said village, and shall do and perform all the duties of fence viewers in said village, required by law to be performed by fence viewers in their respective towns, and shall be liable to all the forfeitures and for all damages for and on account of any neglect to view any fence or to do and perform any duty required of fence viewers, as provided by law."

Approved February 10, 1864.

CHAPTER 36.

[Published February 15, 1864.]

AN ACT to provide for summoning and impanneling grand and petit jurors in the county of Door.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There shall be no grand or petit jury summoned or impaneled for the February term of the circuit court for the said county of Door, unless ordered by the judge of the tenth judicial circuit, and notice given by said judge to the clerk of the circuit court of said county of Door, at least twenty days before the commencement of said February term of court. When so ordered, a grand and petit jury shall be summoned and impaneled, as provided by law in other cases.

No jury for Feb. term, unless ordered by judge.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 10, 1864.