

take charge of the real and personal property belonging thereto, and to transact all business relative to the investment and disposal of said property. And the said association shall have power to elect such other officers as may be necessary, and as may be provided for by their constitution and by-laws, and to perform all their business therein designated.

Other officers.

SECTION 6. It shall be lawful for the said corporation to prosecute [prescribe] the powers and duties of all its officers, except that are herein specified, and to require bonds with sufficient surety for the faithful performance of their duties by the said officers, and also to prescribe the terms of office: provided, that the trustees shall hold their offices at least one year, and until their successors are elected.

Duties of officers

SECTION 7. The property, real and personal, of said corporation, shall be solely devoted to the purposes and objects of said association, and all real and personal estate which has been or may be hereafter lawfully conveyed by devise, gift, grant, purchase or otherwise, to said association, or for the benefit thereof, shall descend, with all improvements and appurtenances, in perpetual succession to, and to be held by the trustees in trust for said association.

Descent of property.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 404.

[Published April 27, 1864.]

AN ACT to incorporate the Lutheran Evangelical church of Schleisingerville, in the county of Washington.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That George Kern, William Ise, William Kushaupt, A. Spannager and M. Grisgow, and their successors, are hereby created a body corporate, with perpetual succession, under the name and title of the "Lutheran Evangelical church," at Schleisingerville, in the county of Washington, and state of Wisconsin.

Name.

Powers.

SECTION 2. Said corporation shall have power to contract and be contracted [with,] sue and be sued, plead and be impleaded, defend and be defended, in courts of law and equity; shall have a common seal, and may alter or renew the same pleasure; shall have power to purchase, acquire, receive by gift, possess, hold and enjoy property, real and personal; to mortgage, sell, convey, rent or otherwise lawfully to dispose of the same.

Board of trustees.

SECTION 3. The government of said corporation and the exercise of all its corporate powers, shall be vested in a board consisting of a president and four trustees, to be chosen annually by the members of said Lutheran Evangelical church from their members, and who shall hold their office for one year, and until their successors are elected and qualified. A majority of such trustees shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business.

Other officers.

SECTION 4. The board of trustees shall at their first regular meeting, elect one treasurer and one secretary, who shall hold their offices for one year, and until their successors are duly elected.

First election of trustees.

SECTION 5. The first meeting for the election of the trustees required by this act, shall take place in the month of April or May, A. D. 1864, and due notice shall be given thereof.

Each member entitled to one vote.

SECTION 6. At all elections of said association, each member shall be entitled to cast but one vote, and at each meeting of the board of trustees, shall cast but one vote.

President pro tem.

SECTION 7. In the absence of the president, the trustees are authorized to elect a president pro tempore from their own number.

SECTION 8. This act shall be in force from and after its passage.

Approved April 2, 1864.