

CHAPTER 469.

[Published May 7, 1864.]

AN ACT in relation to the publication of annual report of superintendent of public instruction.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The superintendent of public instruction is hereby authorized to omit such statistical details from publication in his annual report, as he shall deem proper. Certain details may be omitted.

SECTION 2. The provisions of any law conflicting with this act, are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect when published.
Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 470.

[Published May 6, 1864.]

AN ACT to amend section one of chapter fifty-one of the revised statutes, entitled "of the distraining of cattle doing damage."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter fifty-one of the revised statutes, is hereby amended, so as to read as follows: "Section 1. It shall be lawful for the owner or occupant of lands to distrain all beasts doing damage within his inclosure, and when any distress shall be made of any beasts doing damage, the person distraining shall keep such beasts in some secure place on his premises or in some public pound in his town, city or village, until his damages shall be appraised; and within twenty-four hours after such distress, (unless the same shall be made on Saturday, in which case, before the Tuesday morning following thereafter,) he shall apply to a justice of the peace, who shall appoint three Distraining of cattle and appraisal of damage.

disinterested freeholders of such town to appraise the damages.”

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 4, 1864.

CHAPTER 471.

[Published April 5, 1864.]

AN ACT to define the residences of certain soldiers from this state, in the military service of the United States.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Residence not affected by taking bounty from any other town.

SECTION 1. No soldier's residence shall be deemed to be changed for any purpose whatever, by reason of his having received a local bounty from and having been credited upon the quota or quotas of a town, ward or city other than that in which such soldier actually resided at the time of volunteering; but for the purpose of exercising the right of suffrage in accordance with the provisions of chapter (11) eleven of the laws passed at the extra session of 1862, and chapter fifty-nine of the general laws of 1863, or either of said acts, and for all other purposes, every such soldier shall be deemed to be a resident of the town, ward or city in which he had a legal residence at the time of volunteering.

Copies of this act to be sent to each military company.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of the secretary of state to transmit three printed copies of this act to each military company from this state, as soon as practicable; and this act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 4, 1864.