

CHAPTER 41.

[Published February 24, 1865.]

AN ACT to protect the owners of cranberry marshes.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Injury to vines,
&c., deemed trespass.

SECTION 1. Any person who shall hereafter enter upon any cranberry marsh within this state, belonging to any other person or persons, and pick, injure, destroy or remove therefrom any cranberry vines, or any fruit of such vines, then growing or having grown, without the authority of the owner or owners of such marsh, shall be deemed to be guilty of a malicious trespass.

Warrant for arrest of trespasser.

SECTION 2. Upon complaint being made in writing, upon the oath of any person interested in or having charge of any such marsh, and presented to a justice of the peace of any county in which any such marsh may be, stating that any person or persons has or have trespassed thereon, in any manner mentioned in section one of this act, it shall be the duty of such justice to issue a warrant under his hand, directed to the sheriff or any constable of the county in which such justice resides, commanding said sheriff or constable forthwith to arrest the person or persons charged with said trespass, if to be found in the same or any adjoining county, and to bring him or them, or either of them, before such justice, to answer to the complaint of the party injured, in a plea of trespass, in a sum not to exceed one hundred dollars.

Service of warrant.

SECTION 3. The officer to whom such warrant may be delivered, shall, in virtue thereof, pursue and apprehend such person or persons as are therein named, whenever [wherever] he, they or any of them can be found in the county where such justice resides, or in any county adjoining the same, and for such purpose, the said sheriff or constable is hereby clothed with like power and authority as is conferred upon such officer in the executing of warrants in criminal cases.

Trial of offender.

SECTION 4. Upon the return of such warrant to the justice who issued the same, by the officer serving it, with the person or persons, or any or either of them, so charged, the said justice shall hear, try and determine the action so commenced, in the same manner and with like effect as ordinary actions for trespass.

SECTION 5. If in such action the plaintiff shall recover judgment, he shall recover all costs attending the commencement and trial thereof.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 17, 1865.

CHAPTER 42.

[Published February 24, 1865.]

AN ACT to amend the charter of the Green Bay transit company, approved February 9th, 1864.

(See supplement to local laws.)

CHAPTER 43.

[Published February 24, 1865.]

AN ACT relative to the municipal court of the county of Milwaukee.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. In addition to the jurisdiction now ^{vested in} vested by law in the municipal court of the county of Milwaukee, said court shall also have jurisdiction, concurrent with the circuit court of Milwaukee county, of all actions brought for any breach of any recognizance given in said court in any criminal prosecution; and all laws of this state relative to such actions, are hereby extended and made applicable to said municipal court of Milwaukee county: provided, that no judgment entered up in said municipal court, shall be a lien on real estate, until a transcript of such judgment shall be filed and the judgment docketed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of said county of Milwaukee.