AN ACT to incorporate the Sentinel printing company.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Corporators.

SECTION 1. Tomkins D. Jermain, Horace Brightman, C. Latham Sholes and Lewis Blyer, and their associates, are hereby created a body corporate, under the name and style of the "Sentinel printing company," and as such shall have perpetual succession, and may sue and be sued in any court, with the usual powers of corporations.

Name and powers.

Capital stock, and when company may commence business.

SECTION 2. The capital stock of such corporation shall be two hundred thousand dollars, in shares of one hundred dollars each, and the said company may commence and carry on their corporate business and affairs whenever two thousand shares shall be subscribed and paid in.

Board of directors—their powers

SECTION 3. The corporate powers of said company shall be exercised and its affairs managed by not less than three directors or more than seven. Three or more of the corporators above named shall be the first directors. The stockholders shall elect directors every year, and all directors shall be stockholders in said company. They shall continue to hold office until the election of their successors. The directors shall be empowered to make all proper by-laws for the conduct and regulation of the affairs of the said company, which shall not be inconsistent with law.

SECTION 4. It shall be lawful for said company to lease, purchase and hold all such real and personal estate as may be necessary or convenient for them in carrying on the business of the said company, and to sell, demise or convey the same at pleasure; and the said company may make and execute or may take all such bills, notes, receipts, leases, deeds, or other instruments of any nature, as may be requisite or convenient in the transaction of their business. Further powers of company.

SECTION 5. The said company shall have power to print and publish one or more newspapers in the state of Wisconsin, and to do a general book, newspaper and job-printing business, including bookbinding and blank book manufacturing, ruling, and every species of engraving, stereotyping and other printing, and they may employ all usual or proper means in addition to those herein specifically mentioned, for that purpose. Business of company.

SECTION 6. The stock of the said company shall be only transferable upon the books of the said company, and according to such regulations as may be prescribed by the by-laws of said company. Transfer of stock.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect from and after its passage, and shall be deemed a public act, and shall be liberally construed by all courts. Public act.

Approved April 10, 1865.
