CHAPTER 149.

[Published April 19, 1867.]

AN ACT to regulate and fix the time for holding certain terms of the circuit court in the ninth judicial circuit.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

General terms
in Columbia county.

SECTION 1. From and after the first day of June next, the general terms of the circuit court in and for the county of Columbia, in this state, shall be held as follows, to wit: on the third Tuesday in May and the first Tuesday in December, in each year, instead of the times now appointed by law for holding said court in said county.

Return of process, &c.

SECTION 2. All writs, services, process, continuances, proceedings, returns and recognizances made, issued, commenced, had or entered into in and from said circuit court for Columbia county, and all proceedings pending therein or returnable thereto, whether by recognition or otherwise, shall be held and taken as returnable and continued to the term of said court to be held on the first Tuesday in December next: provided, that nothing in this act contained shall be taken or construed as interfering with or preventing the transaction of any and all business (and the hearing of any and all business;) and the hearing of any and all causes pending in said court at the term thereof appointed to be held on the 12th day of March, A. D. 1867.

SECTION 3. The term of the circuit court appointed by law to be held in and for the county of Dane on the Wednesday next succeeding the first Monday of November, shall hereafter be held on the first Tuesday in October, in each year; and there shall hereafter be held in and for the said county of Dane, on the second Tuesday in July, in each year, a special term of the circuit court for the transaction of all business and the hearing and trial of all actions, matters and proceedings not requiring a trial by jury.

SECTION 4. The term of the circuit court appointed by law to be held in and for the county of Sauk on the first Tuesday in June, shall after the first day of January next be held on the second Tuesday in June, in each year; and the term of court now appointed by law to be held in and for the county of Jefferson, in this state, on the third Tuesday of June, shall after the first day of January next be held on the fourth Tuesday of June, in each year.

SECTION 5. Such other terms of the circuit court as are now appointed by existing laws to be held in the several counties in said circuit, except the county of Columbia, shall be held hereafter at the several times appointed for holding the same by the several laws enacted before the passage of this act.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 11, 1867.
