

further, if, in the opinion of the county board of supervisors, it shall be necessary for an equitable apportionment of such indebtedness on the town so organized, they may cause a new assessment of the town or towns affected by such organization of a new town.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1868.

CHAPTER 93.

[Published March 10, 1868.]

AN ACT to provide for the completion of the state capitol.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

Building commissioners may provide for completion of capitol by contract.

SECTION 1. The governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney general and bank comptroller, shall constitute ex officio a board of building commissioners; and they are hereby authorized to provide for the erection and completion of the rotunda and dome of the state capitol. The contract for work and material on the same shall be let by contract to the lowest and best responsible bidder, under such terms and restrictions as may be provided for in the advertisement and specifications, adopted by said board.

When shall be completed.

SECTION 2. The contract for the completion of said work shall provide for the entire completion of the said rotunda and dome, at such time as said board of building commissioners may determine, but not later than the first day of November, 1870: provided, that not more than twenty-five thousand dollars shall be paid in the year 1868, nor more than the sum of fifty thousand dollars in addition in the year 1869, and the remainder upon the completion and acceptance of the work in 1870.

What provisions continued in force.

SECTION 3. The provisions of section two (2), section three (3), section five (5), section six (6), section eight (8), section nine (9), section ten (10), of chapter fifty-nine (59), of the general laws of 1866, are hereby continued in force, so far as they are not inconsistent with the provisions of this act, and shall govern the commissioners in carrying into effect the provisions of this act.

SECTION 4. There is hereby appropriated out of the state treasury the sum of one hundred and two thousand dollars, which shall be drawn in accordance with law, upon the certificate of said board of commissioners. Appropriation.

SECTION 5. In case the said commissioners shall find that the contract for this work can be let on terms more favorable to the state by allowing the contractor to fit and set up the work at the manufactory, in order to render the whole more complete and perfectly fitted together, the commissioners may, after requiring proper bonds and safe-guards for the protection of the interests of the state, pay a portion of the costs of said work before the same shall be delivered at the capitol. Work may be fitted at manufactory.

SECTION 6. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 4, 1868.

CHAPTER 94.

[Published March 10, 1868.]

AN ACT relating to court expenses.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. It shall be the duty of the sheriff of each county in this state at the commencement of every term of court, to file with the clerk of said court a list of his deputies, who are to receive a per diem for attendance on court: provided, however, that no sheriff shall be entitled to more than three deputies at the expense of the county. The court may, however, by special order, authorize a greater number of deputies to attend jury when the court shall be engaged in the trial of any person charged with crime. Sheriff shall file list of deputies