CHAPTER 57.

[Published March 19, 1870.]

AN ACT to perpetuate the memory of the late Governor Henry Dodge, and to encourage art.

WHEREAS, It has ever been an honored custom of all civilized and enlightened governments to perpetuate the memory of their eminent statesmen, generals and philanthropists, by means of paintings and statuary, as well as through the annals of history; and

WHEREAS, The state of Wisconsin has reason to be proud of the great ability, the sterling integrity and the eminent services of the late Governor Henry Dodge, and is called upon to recognize these qualities and services in some permanent and enduring way, that shall be creditable and honorable to the state; and

WHEREAS, We believe Mr. E. P. Knowles to possess genius and talent as a sculptor of the highest order, and that he is capable of executing a statue that shall reflect credit both upon himself as an artist and upon the state of which he is a citizen; therefore,

The people of the state of Wisconsin, [represented] in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That E. P. Knowles be employed to execute a marble bust of the late Governor Henry Dodge, to be placed in some fit and conspicuous place within the state capitol, said bust to be executed of the finest marble, and not to exceed in cost the sum of two thousand dollars, one-fourth of which sum shall be

E. P. Knowles
to execute bust
of Gov. Dodge.

payable when the plaster model of said bust is completed, and the remainder when the said bust shall be fully executed and delivered, the supervision of the work and the placing of said bust, to be vested in the governor, the secretary of state and chief justice of the supreme court of the state of Wisconsin, upon whose certificate, at the time above mentioned, the said sum above named shall be paid out of the general fund in the state treasury, on the warrant of the secretary of state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 14, 1870.
