

All blanks as above, requiring both sides to be printed, shall be paid [for] by adding to the price bid by the contractor for printing one side, 60 per cent. A token is 240 impressions upon one side of 240 distinct sheets of paper, or 240 impressions on both sides of 120 sheets: provided, that the public printer in executing the printing of any pamphlet, book or daily slip of less than 32 and more than 16 standard pages, shall be allowed for the same as for a full sheet. If less than 16 such pages, they or it shall be counted as half sheets, for the purposes of estimating paper. And to every book, pamphlet or daily slip of more than 32 such pages, the same rule shall apply to the remainder left, by dividing the number of pages in the work by 32. All orders for printing in the English language (other than that required by general statute to be done each year) for the use of any department whatsoever, or for any purpose whatsoever, shall be made through the secretary of state; and the secretary of state shall audit the bill for the same, only upon the receipt of the officer or person for whom the same is ordered, certifying that the work has been received and counted, and found to correspond with the original order for the work.

Additions and definitions.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 15, 1870.

CHAPTER 61.

[Published March 19, 1870.]

AN ACT relating to the crime of larceny.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Every person who shall wrongfully take or carry away with intent to convert to his own use any railway passenger ticket or tickets belonging to any other person or to any corporation, shall upon conviction thereof be deemed guilty of larceny and receive the same punishment as is provided by sections 16, 17 and 18 of chapter 165 of the revised statutes of this state for larcenies of other property of the same value, and the value of such tickets shall be taken and deemed to be the price authorized to be charged for the same upon the sale thereof to passengers.

Penalty for the larceny of railroad tickets.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 15, 1870.

CHAPTER 62.

[Published March 19, 1870.]

AN ACT to encourage the manufacture of beet sugar in this state.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Exemption of
beet sugar manufactories.

SECTION 1. For the term of ten years next after the passage of this act, all the machinery, buildings, real estate and all other property owned by any individual or individuals, corporation or corporations, organized under any law of this state, and used exclusively in the business of manufacturing beet sugar, is hereby exempted from taxation for any purpose whatsoever: provided, that this exemption from taxation shall not apply to lands upon which beets are raised for the purpose of manufacture.

Stock exempt.

SECTION 2. The stock of any incorporated company engaged exclusively in the manufacture of beet sugar in this state, held and owned by any individual or individuals, shall be exempt from taxation for any purpose, for the time specified in the first section of this act.

SECTION 8. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 15, 1870.