

CHAPTER 304.

[Published March 25, 1873.]

AN ACT to amend section nineteen of chapter two hundred and forty-five of the private and local laws of 1868, entitled an act to incorporate the village of Stoughton.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Shall pay over minimum amount of licenses.

SECTION 1. The village treasurers of the incorporated villages in Dane county shall each respectively, on or before the first days of July and January in each year, pay over to the county treasurer of Dane county, the minimum amount for each license for the sale of spirituous and malt liquors now required by law to be paid for such license, and which may have come into the hands of such village treasurers.

SECTION 2. All acts and parts of acts contravening the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 20, 1873.

CHAPTER 305.

[Published March 25, 1873.]

AN ACT to amend sections one and four of chapter one hundred and sixty-nine of the private and local laws of 1868, entitled an act to authorize the several towns in the county of Dane to retain a portion of the money paid for licenses, for the sale of intoxicating liquors.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amended—balance of license moneys to be retained in town treasury.

SECTION 1. That section one of chapter one hundred and sixty-nine of the private and local laws of 1868 be amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. The amount of money paid to the town treasurer of each town in Dane county for license for the sale of spirituous, ardent or intoxicating liquors, shall be retained in the town treasury subject to the direction and control of the annual town meeting of each respective town, as hereinafter provided, except the minimum amount provided by law to be paid for each license to sell intoxicating, ardent, malt or spirituous liquors.

SECTION 2. That section four of said chapter one hundred and sixty-nine be amended so as to read as follows: Section 4. It shall be the duty of the county board of supervisors of Dane county at their annual session in November of each year, to compare the statements furnished them by the several town clerks in accordance with section three of this act, and also the statements furnished by the clerks of the several incorporated villages in said county, with the amounts paid by the several town and village treasurers into the county treasury for licenses, and if it shall appear that the moneys required by law to be paid into the county treasury, have not been so paid, or that any person has sold intoxicating liquors without license in any town or village, the county board of supervisors shall charge such town thus in default, or permitting such sale without license, an amount equal to the minimum required by law for such license so granted, and each person selling intoxicating liquors without license, and the county board of supervisors of said Dane county, if the members of such board or any one of such members have any doubt as to the correctness of the statement made by the clerk of any town or incorporated village, made pursuant to the provisions of section three of this act, shall have power, and such board is hereby authorized to summon such witnesses as such board may deem proper to prove such statement incorrect, and upon being satisfied that the statement of the clerk of any town or incorporated village made pursuant to section three of this act is incorrect, such board shall charge to the town or incorporated village, double the amount provided in this act, for all cases which such clerk shall have failed to repeal [report.]

Amended—
county board shall compare statements.

Shall charge towns in default.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after the passage and publication thereof, and all acts and parts of acts inconsistent with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

Approved March 20, 1873.