

such court commissioner or other officer to proceed in all respects as though the application had been made by the officers of state institutions as provided in said chapter 25; and all the provisions of said chapter 25 shall apply to the taking of deposition of witnesses on the application of the state board of charities and reform, the same as though application was made by trustees, managers or regents of state institutions.

SECTION 3. Any officer serving papers under the provisions of this act or the act to which this is amendatory, shall be entitled to the fees now allowed by law for similar services, to be audited and paid in the manner provided in said chapter 25, for the payment of the fees of the commissioner or other officer and the fees of witnesses.

Fees for giving papers.

SECTION 4. It shall be the duty of the state board of charities and reform, when directed by the governor so to do, to investigate into the past or present management of any or either of the penal correctional reformatory or charitable state institutions, and they shall keep the governor advised of the progress being made in such investigations, and such reports shall from time to time be made as the governor may require, and upon the completion of such investigations they shall report to the governor the facts of the case in full. For services thus rendered under direction of the governor each member of the board shall receive the sum of five dollars per day for the time actually devoted to such investigations, and accounts therefor, when approved by the governor, shall be audited by the secretary of state and paid from the state treasury.

Duties, compensation, etc.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved March 10, 1874.
