

CHAPTER 34.

[Published February 19, 1874.]

AN ACT to prevent the depositing of poison on lands.

*The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:*Depositing poison on lands,
how punished.

SECTION 1. If any person or persons shall deposit any poison or poisonous substance upon the lands or in the buildings of any other person, he or they shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and shall be punished by fine not less than twenty nor more than fifty dollars, or by imprisonment in the county jail not less than thirty nor more than ninety days. And such person or persons so offending shall be further liable in damages to any person injured by the loss or sickness of any domesticated animal, occasioned by the deposit of such poison or poisonous substance.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 18, 1874.

CHAPTER 35.

[Published February 19, 1874.]

AN ACT to provide for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes in certain cases.

*The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:*Duty of county treasurers.

SECTION 1. If for any cause any county treasurer has failed or neglected to sell the lands returned to him upon which the taxes, interest and charges for the year 1872, have not been paid, on the second Tuesday of May, 1873, and next succeeding days, it shall be the duty of such treasurer, and he is hereby required to advertise and sell the same on the first Tuesday of April, A. D. 1874, and the next succeeding days, and such advertisement and sale, and all proceedings subsequent thereto, shall be made in the same manner, and in all respects conform to the general laws of this state for the sale of lands for delinquent taxes, and
