

CHAPTER 182.

[Published March 11, 1875.]

AN ACT to amend chapter five hundred and fifty of the private and local laws of 1867, entitled, "an act to amend chapter two hundred and thirty-three of the private and local laws of 1867, entitled, an act for the preservation of fish in the lakes near Madison."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one of chapter five hundred and fifty is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. No person or persons shall take, catch or kill any fish of any kind in either of the lakes known as Kegonsa, or first lake; Waubesa, or second lake; Monona, or third lake; Mendota, or fourth lake; or Wingra, or Dead lake, situated in the county of Dane, or in any stream or waters connecting said lakes, between the first of March and the tenth day of May in any year, or with any net, seine, wire basket, spear, grapple, trap or device whatever, except hook and line, at any time whatever; provided, that minnows may be taken with a net and suckers may be speared at any time of the year, and whitefish may be speared, except from March first to the tenth of May in any year; but it shall not be lawful during the winter season or time when said lakes are frozen over for any one person catching fish through holes in the ice to use more than three hooks and lines, nor for more than one person from one household or family to use that number.

Amended.

Unlawful to take fish at certain times.

Unlawful to use more than three hooks and lines.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1875.
