CHAPTER 47.

[Published February 24, 1875.]

AN ACT providing for the correction of errors in assessment and tax-rolls in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in Senate and Assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever it shall be discovered by any town, village or city clerk or treasurer, that any parcel of land has been erroneously described on the tax-roll, or that two or more parcels of land belonging to different individuals or corporations, have been assessed together as the property of one individual or corporation on the tax-roll of the town, city or village of which he is clerk or treasurer, he shall notify the assessor, and all parties interested, if residents of the county, by notice in writing, to appear at the clerk's office, at some time not less than five days thereafter, and correct the assessment-roll by correctly describing any parcel of land erroneously described, and by giving each parcel of land separately Of lands erroneously described.

Clerk or treasurer to notify assessor.

owned its proper valuation; but the valuation given to separate tracts, under this act, shall not exceed nor be less than the valuation given to the same property when the several parcels were assessed together.

Shall state
when correction was made.

SECTION 2. When the assessment-roll shall have been so corrected, the clerk shall enter a marginal note on the roll, stating when the correction was made by the assessor, and if the taxes shall have been extended against the property previously to the making of the correction by the assessor, it shall be the duty of the clerk to correct the tax-roll in the same manner that the assessment-roll was corrected, and extend against each tract the proper amount of tax to be collected.

No appeal shall be taken.

SECTION 3. From the determination of the assessor in giving separate parcels of land their proper valuation, under the provisions of this act, there shall be no appeal, but such valuation shall be taken and held to be just and correct, and shall be final.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 20, 1875.
