

CHAPTER 163.

[Published March 15, 1876.]

AN ACT to legalize certain illegalities in certificates of tax sales.

*The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:*Tax certificates legalized.

SECTION 1. All irregularities in the certificates of tax sale in Monroe county for the year 1872, on account of the insertion of an erroneous date, as the day of sale, in said certificates of tax sale, are hereby legalized and made as valid and effectual for all purposes, as if such error had not been made.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 8, 1876.

CHAPTER 164.

[Published April 5, 1876.]

AN ACT to regulate and fix the number of petit jurors in Marquette county.

*The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:*Selection of jurors.

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of Marquette county shall at each annual session thereof, select from the lists returned from the several towns for that purpose, as required by law, the names of seventy-two persons, good and lawful jurors, to serve as petit jurors in the circuit court for the ensuing year.

Number of jurors to be drawn.

SECTION 2. From the names selected and returned by the board of supervisors as provided in section one of this act, the clerk of the circuit court, at the time and in the manner now provided by law, shall draw the names of but twenty-four persons, to serve as petit jurors for each term of court, to be held in said county unless the circuit judge for said county shall sign his order in writing, at least fifteen days before the sitting of the court in said county, commanding such clerk to draw a greater number of jurors than is herein provided for.
