

CHAPTER 31.

[Published February 23, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend chapter one hundred and fifty-two (152), of the private and local laws of the State of Wisconsin, for the year 1867, entitled "An act to amend an act entitled an act to incorporate the village of Geneva, and the several acts amendatory thereof."

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

- Amended. SECTION 1. Section fifteen (15), of said chapter one hundred and fifty-two (152), is hereby amended by adding at the end of said section fifteen (15) as follows, to-wit:
- Licensed employments. 21st. To regulate and license hacks, cabs, carriages, and drays, within said village, and to prescribe the charges of hackmen, cabmen, and draymen, within the limits of said village.
- Wells, cisterns, etc. 22d. To make and establish public wells, cisterns, and reservoirs, and to provide for the erection of water-works for the supply of water to the inhabitants of said village, and to erect lamp-posts and lamps, and to provide for the lighting of any portion of said village by gas or otherwise.
- Trees. 23d. To direct and regulate the planting and preservation of shade and ornamental trees on the streets, public grounds, and along the lake shore in said village.
- Piers, docks, etc. 24th. To establish harbor and dock limits, and to regulate the locating and manner of construction and use of all piers, docks, wharves, and boat-houses, along the banks of Geneva Lake, and the dams thereof, within Geneva village.
- Obstructions. 25th. To prevent and remove all obstructions and encroachments along the lake shore and waters of Geneva Lake, and to improve and protect by docking, piercing, dredging, widening, or straightening the same, as may be deemed necessary for the public good.
- Health. 26th. To direct the location and management of all slaughter-houses, markets, and tanneries, within said village, and to establish and regulate a board of health.
- Surveyor. 27th. To establish the grade of all streets and to appoint a surveyor, and to prescribe his duties and fix his compensation.

28th. To appoint night watchmen for any term not <sup>Watchmen.</sup> to exceed the unexpired term of office of the board of trustees making such appointments, and to provide for their payment out of the general funds of said village, and any person so appointed shall have all powers, during the term of such appointments, of constables elected under the general laws of this state so far as necessary for the preservation of the peace and good order of said village.

29th. To regulate the police and firemen of said <sup>Police and firemen.</sup> village; to prescribe their duties, provide for their compensation, and to punish their misconduct in office, by fine or discharge, or both, when deemed necessary, and to discharge them at their option.

SECTION 2. Section twenty-six (26), of said chapter <sup>Amended.</sup> one hundred and fifty-two (152), is hereby amended by inserting six hundred (600) in the place of four hundred (400), whenever it occurs in said section.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved February 16, 1876.

CHAPTER 32.

[Published March 1, 1876.]

AN ACT to amend section one (1), of chapter seventeen (17), of the general laws of 1874, relating to the lien law, extending the provisions of said law to the counties of Taylor and Lincoln.

The people of the State of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section one (1), of chapter seventeen <sup>Amended.</sup> (17), of the general laws of 1874, entitled, "An act to amend section one (1), of chapter one hundred (100), of the general laws of 1867, relating to the lien law, extending the provisions of said law to Outagamie county," is hereby amended by inserting the words "Taylor" and "Lincoln," after the word "Outagamie," so as to read as follows: Section one (1). Any person or corporation that shall furnish any supplies, or that may do or perform any labor or services in cutting, falling, hauling, driving, running, rafting, booming, cribbing, or towing any logs or timber in the counties of Pierce, St. Croix, Polk, Dallas,
