CHAPTER 235.

AN ACT relating to excise and the sale of intoxicating liquors, and to amend section five of chapter one hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of Wisconsin for 1874, entitled "An act to consolidate and codify the various laws of our state relating to excise and the sale of intoxicating liquors."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section five of chapter one hundred and seventy-nine of the laws of Wisconsin for 1874, entitled "An act to consolidate and codify the various laws of our state relating to excise and the sale of intoxicating liquors," is hereby amended by inserting "malt" after the word "spirituous," where it occurs in the third line of said section, so that when so amended it will read as follows: Section 5. If any person shall vend, sell, deal or traffic in, or for the purpose of evading this chapter, give away, any spirituous, malt, ardent or intoxicating liquors or drinks, in any quantity whatever, without first having obtained a license therefor, according to the provisions of this chapter, he shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction thereof shall be punished therefor by a fine of not less than ten nor more than forty dollars, besides the cost of suit; or in lieu of such fine, by imprisonment in the county jail of the proper county, not to exceed sixty days, nor less than twenty days; and in case of punishment by fine as above provided, such person shall, unless the fine and costs be paid forthwith, be committed to the county jail of the proper county until such fine and all costs are paid, or until discharged by due course of law; and in case of a sec-
