CHAPTER 190.

AN ACT relating to the division of towns, and amendatory of section six hundred and seventy-one of the revised statutes of 1878.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Petition of residents and legal voters.

SECTION 1. Section six hundred and seventy-one of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 671. When thirty or more freeholders, residents of any town, and at least one-third of the legal voters thereof, shall petition the county board for a division of such town, such petitioners shall, at least twenty days before the next annual town meeting, file a copy of such petition with the clerk of such town, who shall, at least ten days before such town meeting, give notice that the question of the division of such town will be voted upon at such town meeting, by posting notices thereof, showing the manner in which it is proposed to divide such town, in four public places in each proposed subdivision thereof. The vote shall be by ballot, and those voting in favor of the division shall vote a ballot containing the words "for division", and those voting against the division, a ballot containing the words "against division." The voters residing in each of the proposed subdivisions shall vote separately, and if a majority of the votes cast in either subdivision, shall be in favor of division, the town clerk shall certify the fact to the county clerk, and thereupon the county board shall have power to divide such town accordingly. But no town shall be divided so as to constitute or leave any town of less than thirty-six sections, according to United States survey, unless each such town, after division, shall have real estate valued at the last preceding assessment, at thirty thousand dollars or more, and twenty-five qualified voters, resident therein at the time of division; and no town shall be divided, or have any part detached therefrom, so as to make its area less than thirty-six sections, as aforesaid, except when a majority of the votes cast in each subdivision, as aforesaid, shall be in favor of such division.

Submission of question of division to vote of people.

Style of ballot.

Votes in each subdivision to be separate.

Division not to take place under certain conditions.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 4, 1879.
