

historical society," in the third and fourth lines of said section, the words "secretary of the state agricultural society," so that the said section when so amended shall read as follows: Section 169. The governor, secretary of state, state treasurer, attorney general, state superintendent, superintendent of public property, clerk of the supreme court, corresponding secretary of the state historical society, secretary of the state agricultural society, railroad commissioner, commissioner of insurance and state board of charities and reform, adjutant general, quarter-master general, and state treasury agent, are authorized to procure for the use of their respective offices the necessary amount of postage stamps or stamped envelopes for the payment of the postage of the official correspondence of their several departments. The accounts therefor shall be audited by the secretary of state upon the presentation thereof in the manner hereinbefore provided, and paid out of the state treasury.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1880.

[No. 122, A.]

[Published March 16, 1880.]

CHAPTER 200.

AN ACT to amend subdivision one of section three hundred and thirty-nine of chapter twenty of the revised statutes, entitled of public printing.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision one of section three hundred and thirty-nine is hereby amended by striking out the word "five," in the first line of said subdivision, and inserting the word "seven," so that said subdivision, when so amended, will read as follows: 1. Seven thousand copies of the transactions of the Wisconsin agricultural society, together with abstracts of the reports of the county agricultural societies, and such other matters pertaining to the industry of the state as shall be deemed important.

Seven thousand copies of annual report of Agricultural Society.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1880.