CHAPTER 222.

AN ACT relating to proceedings to enforce liens on logs in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Eau Claire river excepted.

Duty of officer serving writ.

SECTION 1. In actions to enforce liens on logs cut, to be banked on the Chippewa river or any of its tributaries, except the Eau Claire river, where the logs have been marked, the officer having the writ of attachment or execution shall make his levy by indorsing on the writ of attachment or execution his certificate that by virtue of said writ of attachment or execution, he has levied on the logs described in the writ of attachment or execution, specifying the number of feet taken to satisfy the amount due the plaintiff, specifying the amount, with costs, and by filing a certified copy of said writ of attachment or execution with his indorsement thereon in the office of the clerk of the circuit court and lumber inspector's office, where the lien is claimed: provided, that if the lien petition is not filed in the office of the clerk of the circuit court at Chippewa Falls, Wisconsin, then the levy shall not be complete until a copy of said writ of attachment or execution with the indorsement thereon shall have been so filed. The clerk and lumber inspector shall be entitled to fifteen cents each for their services.

Petition to be filed at Chippewa Falls.

SECTION 2. When the levy is made in the manner above specified, the officer shall be deemed to be in possession of the number of feet of said mark of logs specified in his certificate, and if a sale of said logs is made, it shall not be necessary for the officer making the sale to be in view of said logs.

Levy and sale.

SECTION 3. After the making of the levy as before specified, any person sawing, buying or using any of the mark of logs levied on before the lien claim is satisfied, shall be liable to said lien claimant or the officer levying on the logs, for the value of the logs so sawed, bought or used, or sufficient thereof to satisfy said lien claim and costs.

Liability of persons buying or using logs levied on.

SECTION 4. The person purchasing at the sheriff's sale may claim the amount by him purchased, to be taken from said mark of logs wherever the same can be found, or may recover the value thereof from any person that shall have sawed, sold or used any of said logs subsequent to the levy.

Authority of purchaser.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
