

Amended.

Elective officers.

Appointive officers.

Of relief of and support of poor

SECTION 20. Section one of chapter two of said chapter two hundred and sixty-two, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. The elective officers of said city shall be a mayor, three aldermen from each ward, a city treasurer, a chief of police, city clerk, city attorney, assessor, and three justices of the peace for the city at large; one of said justices shall be elected as and called police justice. All other officers necessary for the proper management of the affairs of said city shall be appointed by the common council.

SECTION 21. The laws of the state for the relief and support of the poor in towns, shall apply to said city of Green Bay, and the common council shall appoint at least three of its number, who shall organize and act as a poor board, with the mayor as president thereof; such board shall be governed by such rules as the common council may prescribe, and in respect to the poor of the city shall have the same powers, be subject to the same liabilities and governed by the same laws as supervisors of towns.

SECTION 22. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 286.

AN ACT to amend chapter two of chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1858, entitled an act to incorporate the city of Ripon.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Question of license or no license to be submitted to vote of city.

SECTION 1. Chapter two of chapter seventy-two of the private and local laws of 1858, is hereby amended by adding thereto the following sections, to-wit: Section 9. At each annual election of mayor and aldermen of the city of Ripon, the question of granting or not granting licenses for the sale of strong, spirituous, malt, ardent or intoxicating liquors to be drunk on the premises, for the next ensuing year, shall be submitted for decision to the qualified voters of said city in the manner hereinafter provided.

Separate ballot box.

SECTION 2. Section 10. At every such election the inspectors of election shall provide a separate ballot box, in which each voter may deposit one ballot, said ballot to contain either the words "For license," or the words "Against license." At the close of the election these ballots shall be canvassed and the returns made in the same manner and to the same authorities as is provided in the case of the ballots cast for mayor and other city officers.

SECTION 3. Section 11. If the majority of the whole number of said ballots deposited shall be for license, then the common council elected at said election shall grant so many such licenses as it shall deem expedient: provided, that no license shall be granted for a less sum than is prescribed by section one thousand five hundred and forty-eight of the revised statutes, and no license shall run for a longer period than the term of the council granting it.

SECTION 4. Section 12. If the majority of the whole number of said ballots deposited shall be against license, then no such license shall be granted during the next ensuing year; and it shall be the duty of the common council to use all means in its power to prevent the illegal sale of strong, spirituous, malt, ardent or intoxicating liquors; and to this end it may make and enforce any ordinance not repugnant to the constitutions of the United States and of Wisconsin.

SECTION 5. Section 13. Any place in which strong, spirituous, malt, ardent or intoxicating liquors are sold without the license required by law shall be deemed public or common nuisances; and whenever it shall be proved to the satisfaction of the common council that said liquors are sold without license in any place in said city of Ripon, it shall order the party owning or the party leasing said premises, or both the said parties, to abate such nuisance by removing from said premises the stock of liquors and the bar and other instruments of sale, within such time and under such penalties as the common council may by ordinance prescribe.

SECTION 6. All acts or parts of acts conflicting herewith are hereby repealed.

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 15, 1880.
