CHAPTER 7.

AN ACT to authorize Thomas W. Gay, James A. Robb and Samuel H. Robb, their associates and assigns, to construct and maintain a dam across the Kickapoo river, on land owned by them.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Thos. W. Gay, James A. Robb and Samuel H. Robb, their associates and assigns, are hereby authorized to construct and maintain a dam across the Kickapoo river, on land owned by the said Thomas W. Gay, James A. Robb and Samuel H. Robb, or either of them, known as lots one (1) and two (2), in section twenty-eight (28), township ten (10) north, of range four (4) west, in said county of Crawford; said dam to be constructed for hydraulic and manufacturing purposes, and for the purpose of facilitating the driving of logs and timber down said stream: provided, that said dam shall not interfere with the rights of any person heretofore acquired. The aforesaid persons, their successors and assigns, shall build a suitable slide or chute in said dam, of the width of twenty-six feet, for running logs, timber and lumber over the same, and shall keep the same in repair, and shall put through said dam all logs, timber and lumber belonging to any and all other parties, free of expense and charge; the aforesaid persons, their successors and assigns, are hereby authorized to maintain said dam at a height of not exceeding seven feet in low water.

SECTION 2. Any person or persons who shall willfully break or destroy said dam, or shall open the same, shall be liable to the proprietors thereof in an action to the amount of damages done, in addition to the penalties already provided by law, to be recovered before any court of competent jurisdiction.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage.

Approved February 12, 1880.
