CHAPTER 84.

AN ACT to correct a mistake in chapter 287 of the laws of 1881, entitled an act to amend chapter 153, section 3318 of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to liens

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1 of chapter 287 of laws of 1881 is amended so as to read as follows: Section 1 chapter 143, section 3318 of the revised statutes of 1878 is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 3318. No lien hereby given shall exist and no action to enforce the same shall be maintained unless within six months from the date of the last charge for performing such work and labor or of the furnishing of such materials a claim for such lien shall be filed as hereinafter provided in the office of the clerk of the circuit court of the county in which the lands affected thereby lie, nor unless such action be brought within one year from such date, unless within thirty days next preceding the expiration of one year the person filing the lien shall make and annex to the instrument on file an affidavit setting forth the interest which he has by virtue of such lien in the property therein mentioned, upon which affidavit the clerk shall endorse the time when the same was filed. The effect of such affidavit shall not continue beyond one year from the time when such lien would otherwise cease to be valid as against subsequent purchaser's liens or mortgages in good faith. Such claim for lien may be filed and docketed within such six months notwithstanding the death of the owner of the property affected thereby, or of the person with whom the original contract, was made, with like effect as if he were then living.

In regard to lien.

SECTION 2. This act shall be in force and take effect from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 11, 1882.
