CHAPTER 111.

AN ACT to amend section 663 of chapter 36 of the revised statutes of 1878, entitled "of the county board."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Relating to county board.

SECTION 1. Section 663 of chapter 36 of the revised statutes of Wisconsin for the year 1878, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 663. The county board of supervisors shall consist of the chairman of each of the several towns and the supervisor of each ward and part of ward of every city, and of each incorporated village and part of such village situated in the county; but if from sickness, or other cause, the chairman of any town board shall be unable to attend any meeting of the county board, either of the other members of such town board, to be designated by themselves (and if they shall disagree they shall decide the same by lot), shall attend such meeting and act as a member of such county board; but such member of a town board shall not be permitted to act as a member of the county board until the town clerk of such town shall certify to the county clerk the name of the supervisors so designated to represent said town. When the county shall consist of one town, the supervisors of such town shall constitute the county board of supervisors of such county. Nor shall any county officer, or deputy county officer be eligible to any office named in this section; provided nothing herein shall affect the power of the county clerk under section 665 of the revised statutes.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 21, 1883.
