of range seven (7) east. Also the northwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of the southwest quarter ($\frac{1}{4}$) of section number thirty-six (36), in town number two (2) north, of range seven (7) east, in the town of Monroe, Green county, Wisconsin, is hereby organized into and constituted a union school district, to be known as union school district number one of the city of Monroe.

Additional section.

SECTION 2. Section 2 of chapter 81 of the private and local laws of 1872, is hereby amended to read as follows: Section 2. The following shall stand as an additional section to said chapter 551 of the private and local laws of 1866, and be numbered as follows: Section 14. The board of education at their first regular meeting after the annual school meeting of said district in each year, may elect by ballot one of their number a superintendent, who shall hold said office one year, who shall have general supervision over the schools in said union district, and who shall be the general executive officer of the board. It shall be his duty to visit the several schools in said district frequently enough during each term thereof to enable him, as far as practicable to obtain full knowledge of their condition, and to submit a written report from time to time to the board of education; he shall have power, and it shall be his duty, to carry into effect such rules as the board of education may direct.

Annual school meeting, when held.

SECTION 3. The annual school meeting of said union school district number one (1) of the city of Monroe, shall, after the passage of this act, be held on the first Monday of July in each year, at the high school building in said district. The hour of meeting shall be seven o'clock in the afternoon. All proceedings of any annual school meeting previously held on the first Monday of June in said district are hereby legalized.

Present incumbents, how long to hold.

SECTION 4. The present incumbent of the office of district clerk shall hold his office until the annual meeting in the year 1885. The present incumbent of the office of director shall hold his office until the annual meeting in the year 1884. The present incumbent of the office of district treasurer shall hold his office until the annual meeting in the year 1883, when the terms of office as provided in this section expire. Successors to such incumbents shall be elected, who shall hold their office for three years. Thereafter successors shall be elected every three years. The four assistant directors provided for in section 1 of chapter 81 of the private and local laws of 1872, two of which were elected in the year 1880, shall hold their office until the annual meeting in the year 1883, two of which were elected in the year 1881, shall hold their office until the annual meeting in the year 1884. Thereafter successors shall be elected to such incumbents, whose terms shall expire as assistant directors as provided in this section, who shall hold their office for two years. Thereafter, successors shall be elected every two years.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 239.

AN ACT to authorize the county of Lincoln to fund its indebtedness.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows :

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of Lincoln county, shall have power to issue the bonds of said county to an amount not exceeding ninety thousand dollars ($90,000). Such bonds shall bear interest at a rate not exceeding seven (7) per cent. per annum, payable annually, from the date of issue, and may be negotiated or sold by said county, or exchanged by said county for the indebtedness of said county, as hereafter provided, but such bonds shall not be so negotiated or sold or exchanged at less than par. Such bonds shall be drawn for such amounts, and made payable at such times, as will make such bonds become due as near as may be in ten annual installments, the first installment becoming due in two years after the date of such bonds.

SECTION 2. All moneys derived from the sale of such bonds, shall, immediately after their sale, be used by said county for the following purposes in the order named: First, to extinguish the judgment indebtedness existing against said county, each judgment creditor or his assigns to be paid pro rata from said money until the whole of said judgment indebtedness is extinguished, and the remainder, if any, for the extinguishment of the
