CHAPTER 257.

AN ACT to amend chapter 181 of the revised statutes, entitled "of offenses against the lives and persons of individuals."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Relating to offenses
against the lives and persons of individuals.

SECTION 1. Section 4387 of chapter 181 of the revised statutes of 1878, is hereby amended by striking out the words "not more than two years nor less than one year," and inserting in lieu thereof, "not more than five years nor less than one year," so that said section, when so amended, shall read as follows: Section 4387. Any person who shall, without lawful authority, forcibly or secretly confine or imprison another, within this state, against his will, or who shall forcibly carry or send another out of this state, or from place to place within this state, against his will and without lawful authority, or who shall, without such authority, forcibly seize, confine, inveigle or kidnap another, with intent to cause such person to be secretly confined or imprisoned in this state, against his will, or to be sent or carried out of this state, against his will, or to be sold as a slave, or in any way held to service, against his will, shall be punished by imprisonment in the state prison not more than five years nor less than one year, and such offense may be tried in the county where it is committed, or in any county into which the person so kidnapped may be carried or sent; and upon the trial thereof, the consent thereto of the persons so seized, confined, in-
