CHAPTER 98.

AN ACT to establish and create the town of Glenwood, in the county of St. Croix.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. All that portion of the town of Emerald, in the county of St. Croix, in this state, comprising the government township thirty, north of range fifteen west, is hereby detached from the said town of Emerald, and shall be hereafter the town of Glenwood. Glenwood created.

First election—how held.

SECTION 2. The said town of Glenwood is hereby created and established with all the rights, powers and privileges given by existing laws to other towns in this state, and the first election in said town shall be held at the house of J. F. Marshall, on the first Tuesday of April next, to choose such town and other officers, as are required by law to be elected, and the town board of said town so elected, shall constitute the board of supervisors of said town.

Duties of county board in regard to new towns.

SECTION 3. At the next meeting of the board of supervisors of St. Croix county, held after the election provided for in the preceding section, said board of supervisors shall ascertain the proportion of indebtedness, if any, chargeable to said town of Glenwood, as having been legally incurred by said town of Emerald, and divide the same pro rata, between said town of Emerald and said town of Glenwood, according to the last assessment roll of said town of Emerald and also on the same basis to allow said town of Glenwood its due proportion of any indebtedness due said town of Emerald for any portion of the land sold for taxes, prior to the passage of this act, which form part of the said town of Glenwood; provided, that in case any taxes heretofore levied upon the lands in said town of Emerald shall for any reason become chargeable back to said town, they shall be charged to the town, as existing after the passage of this act, in which such land is situated. This act shall not in any manner affect any action or actions now pending, or which may be hereafter brought, to have declared void and set aside, or to restrain the collection of, or to recover back any tax or taxes heretofore assessed or levied, or re-assessed or re-levied, or justly chargeable or leviable upon any lands, or to restrain the sale for any such tax or taxes, of any such lands by this act embraced in said town of Glenwood; nor shall this act in any manner affect or prevent the collection of such tax or taxes, or the re-assessment or re-levy, of any such tax or taxes upon said lands, or any of them, by the said board of supervisors, or the town board of said town of Emerald, but for all such purposes, said lands shall be deemed, held and considered a part of said town of Emerald. And if a re-assessment shall be ordered or permissible in any such action or actions, or if a re-assessment or re-levy of any such tax or taxes, shall be ordered by said board of supervisors, or town board, the territory by this act, embraced and included in said town of Glenwood, shall, for all purposes of such re-assessment, re-levy and the collection of all such taxes, be deemed and considered and remain a part of said town of Emerald, and said town of Glenwood shall pay its just and equitable share of the costs and expenses of any, and all re-assessments and re-levies, in any such action or actions, and of all bonds issued, and of all debts and obligations lawfully contracted, or paid or to be paid thereunder by said town of Emerald, to be determined by said board of supervisors as aforesaid. From the decision or determination of said board in any matter coming before it under this act, an appeal may be taken by any party aggrieved thereby, to the circuit court of said county in the manner now provided by law.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 18, 1885.
