CHAPTER 189.

AN ACT to provide for the partition of personal property owned by tenants in common.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Providing for partition of personal property.

SECTION 1. When any two or more persons shall own any personal property as tenants in common and any one or all shall be desirous to have a division of the same, it shall and may be lawful for such person or persons to commence an action therefor. The complaint in such action shall comply substantially with the provision required for a complaint for a partition of real property in section 3102, of the revised statutes of 1878, so far as the same are applicable. Such action shall be tried by the court without a jury, and if in the opinion of the court a division of such personal property can be had without a sale thereof, then the court shall give judgment accordingly, dividing such property as nearly co-
