

[No. 786, A.]

[Published April 22, 1887.]

CHAPTER 346.

AN ACT to authorize Daniel J. Arpin and Edmond P. Arpin and W. G. Collins to erect, maintain and keep in repair a dam in the Tomahawk river, on section twenty-eight, town thirty-five, range six, east.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Daniel J. Arpin and Edmond P. Arpin and W. G. Collins, their heirs, associates and assigns, are hereby authorized and empowered to erect, maintain and keep in repair a dam across the Tomahawk river, in Lincoln county, on the south-west quarter of section twenty-eight, in township thirty-five north, of range six, east, for the purpose of raising and collecting the waters of said river to be used in facilitating the running of logs, timber and lumber over the upper Tomahawk rapids, and the driving of custom and grist mills, and for other uses; provided, that said dam shall not exceed twelve feet in height, and shall be so constructed as not to obstruct or impede the running of logs, timber or lumber down said river; and provided further, that a suitable slide forty feet in width, shall be maintained at the expense of the owners of said dam, at least two feet below the general height of said dam, with guide booms, and permanent piers, so as to pass all logs, timber and lumber, down and over said slide, without delay, hindrance or waste. The owners of said dam, shall put suitable boom sticks along the sides of the channel of said river above said dam, and as far up said river as the flowage of said dam shall extend, in such a manner as to prevent the logs coming down said river from going out of the channel thereof. Said dam shall be provided with proper gates for the purpose of increasing the flowage capacity through the same, in cases of high water. Compensation to land owners for damages occasioned thereby, shall be ascertained, and in all respects controlled by the Authorizing Daniel J. Arpin, et al., to build dam on Tomahawk river, Lincoln county.

provisions relating thereto of chapter 146, of the revised statutes, entitled, "of mills and mill dams."

Right reserved.

SECTION 2. The legislature reserves the right to amend or repeal this act, whenever, in its judgment, the public interests may require.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 6, 1887.

[No. 459, A.]

[Published April 28, 1887.]

CHAPTER 347.

AN ACT to regulate the practice of veterinary medicine and surgery.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Regulating practice of veterinary medicine and surgery.

SECTION 1. No person shall practice veterinary medicine and surgery or any branch thereof in this state for compensation, or shall directly or indirectly ask or receive for his services as a practitioner of veterinary medicine or surgery any fee or reward, nor shall be a competent expert witness in any court in matters pertaining to diseases of animals, except he be duly registered as hereinafter provided, in the book kept for that purpose in the office of the register of deeds of the county in which he resides.

Who entitled to register.

SECTION 2. No person shall be entitled to register as such practitioner unless he be a graduate of a legally chartered school or college of medicine and surgery or shall hold a certificate of qualification from a legally incorporated veterinary society, or shall have practiced veterinary medicine and surgery in this state for a period of not less than five years continuously preceding the passage of this act.

Register of deeds to provide register.

SECTION 3. The register of deeds of each county shall provide a book to be known as the "veterinary medical register," in which shall be recorded the name of the registrant, the name of