CHAPTER 412.

AN ACT to provide for the preservation of wall-eyed pike in the waters of that part of Green Bay laying within the jurisdiction of the state, and that part of Fox River between Green Bay and the dam of Depere.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Preservation of wall eyed pike in certain waters.

SECTION 1. Hereafter it shall be unlawful for any person or persons to take, catch, kill, sell, buy or have in their possession any wall-eyed pike of less weight than one and one-half pounds from the waters described in the title of this act.

Penalty.

SECTION 2. Any person or persons violating the provisions of this act shall, upon conviction thereof, be subject to a fine of not less than ten dollars nor more than fifty dollars, together with the costs of prosecution, for each and every offense, and shall be committed to the county jail until such fine and costs are paid, or the offender or offenders are discharged by law.

Justices of the peace to have jurisdiction.

SECTION 3. Justices of the peace shall have jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all cases and actions arising under the provisions of this act; and all fines received under the provisions of this act shall be paid one-half to the informer and the other half into the school fund.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 11, 1887.
