CHAPTER 468.

AN ACT to amend chapter 441, of the laws of 1887, entitled, "An act to extend the lien law of the state."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amending ch. 441, laws 1887, extending lien to owner of jackass.

SECTION 1. Chapter 441, of the laws of 1887, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 1. Every owner of a stallion or jackass kept and used for breeding purposes shall have a lien upon any colt gotten by such stallion or jackass, for the sum stipulated to be paid for the service of such stallion or jackass, and may seize and take possession of said colt without process at any time, in case the price agreed upon for such services remains unpaid, and sell the same at public auction upon ten days' notice, to be posted in at least three public places in the town where such owner resides, and apply the proceeds of such sale to the payment of the amount due for such services and the expenses of such seizure and sale, returning the residue, if any, to the party entitled thereto.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 17, 1889.

CHAPTER 469.

AN ACT to appropriate to Grant county the sum of money hereinafter set forth.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. There is hereby appropriated to Grant county any money in the general fund not otherwise appropriated, the sum of two hundred eighteen dollars and forty-eight cents; the same being the aggregate and full amount of four judgments for costs in favor of said county against said state rendered in the circuit court of said Grant county at its September term, 1884, in the matter of the appeal by said county from the judgments and orders of the board of supervision of Wisconsin charitable, reformatory and penal institutions, made on April 30, 1884; said judgments and orders denying the petition of said county for the payment of money to said county, and paid by it to the state, for maintenance at Mendota, of Ring, Richards, Foster and Pedro, four insane patients, chargeable to the state at large, from May 12, 1879, to September 30, 1882.

Appropriation to Grant county to pay amount due for maintenance of four insane patients.
