CHAPTER 518.

AN ACT concerning conditional sales of furniture or other household effects.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Conditional sales of furniture and household effects.

SECTION 1. All contracts for the sale of furniture or other household effects made on condition that the title to the property sold shall not pass until the price is paid in full, whether such contract be in the form of a lease or otherwise, shall be in writing, and a copy thereof shall be furnished the vendee by the vendor at the time of such sale; and all payments made by or in behalf of the vendee, and all charges whether in the nature of interest or otherwise as they accrue, shall be endorsed by the vendor or his agent upon such copy, if the vendee so requests. If the vendor fails to comply with any of the provisions of this section through negligence, his rights under such contract shall be suspended while such default continues; and if he refuses, or wilfully or fraudulently fails to comply with any of such provisions, he shall be deemed to have waived the conditions of such sale.

SECTION 2. The vendor, upon taking possession of such furniture or effects for non-compliance with the terms of such contract of sale, shall furnish the vendee or other person in charge of such furniture or effects an itemized statement of the account showing the amount then due thereon, and the vendee shall have the right at any time within fifteen days after such taking to redeem the property so taken by paying to the vendor the full amount of the price then unpaid, together with the interest and all lawful charges and expenses due to the vendor; and the fifteen days hereinbefore provided during which the vendee shall have the right to redeem the furniture or household effects so taken, shall not begin to run until such statement is furnished; provided, the vendee or other person in charge can be found by the vendor by the exercise of reasonable care and diligence. No contract mentioned in this act shall be valid as against any other person than the parties thereto and those having notice thereof unless such contract shall be in writing subscribed by the parties thereto, and the same or a copy thereof shall be filed in the office of the clerk of the town, city, or village where the vendee resides or if he shall not be a resident of the state then in the office of the clerk of the town, city or village where the property may be at the time of making such contract, and such clerk shall file, keep and index the same in like manner as mortgages of personal property, and receive a like compensation therefor; but the effect of such filing shall not extend for more than one year after the time fixed for payment of the contract price or for the performance of the other conditions of such sale.

In case of forfeiture vendor to furnish statement of amount due to vendee; redemption; time when begins to run.

Contract to be filed in office of town, city or village clerk.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
Approved April 18, 1889.
