CHAPTER 136.

AN ACT to repeal chapter 63, of the laws of 1889, entitled, "An act to create the municipal court of the county of Dunn and the city of Menomonie."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Repeals chapter 63, laws of 1889.

SECTION 1. Chapter 63, laws of 1889, entitled, "An act to create the municipal court of the county of Dunn and the city of Menomonie," is hereby repealed.

Jurisdiction transferred to circuit court, Dunn county.

SECTION 2. All judgments rendered by said municipal court and entered in the docket or dockets thereof, and all commitments of criminals to the common jail of Dunn county, and all bonds and recognizances taken by said court from persons charged with any crime or misdemeanor to appear before the circuit court of Dunn county to answer any criminal offense, and any and all other bonds and recognizances taken by said court shall be and remain in full force and effect. And the circuit court of Dunn county shall have full power and is hereby authorized and empowered to hear, try and determine all actions, whether civil or criminal which have been taken, or which may be hereafter taken before this act goes into effect, to said circuit court from said municipal court, by appeal or by virtue of section 9, of said chapter 63, laws for 1889, or otherwise, with like effect as though said chapter 63, laws of 1889, had not been repealed.

SECTION 3. It shall be the duty of the judge of said municipal court, at the time this act takes effect, to deliver to the then nearest qualified and acting justice of the peace of the city of Menomonie, the docket or dockets, civil and criminal, of said municipal court, together with all other books and papers pertaining to said court; and such justice of the peace is hereby authorized and empowered to demand and receive the same. And such justice of the peace and his successors in office are hereby authorized and empowered to issue execution on any judgment entered in the docket or dockets of said municipal court when such judgment does not exceed the jurisdiction of the justices of the peace as defined by section 3572, of the revised statutes; and in judgments exceeding the jurisdiction of justices of the peace, it shall be the duty of the person desiring an execution on any such judgment to procure a certified transcript thereof, and file the same with the clerk of the circuit court of Dunn county, and such clerk shall docket such judgment and issue execution as in other cases. And such justice of the peace and his successors in office are also hereby authorized and empowered to do any other act or thing necessary to carry any such judgment into effect, the same as though such judgment had been taken and rendered before him.

Dockets, etc.,
to be delivered
to nearest justice of the peace.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after May 1, 1891.

Approved April 3, 1891.
