CHAPTER 160.

AN ACT relating to the government of county asylums for the chronic insane, and amendatory of sections 1 and 2, of chapter 138, of the laws of 1887, entitled "An act for the government of county asylums for the chronic insane," approved, March 25, 1887.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends sec. 1,
ch. 138, laws of 1887.

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 138, of the laws of 1887, entitled "An act for the government of county asylums for the chronic insane," is hereby amended by striking out the word "there," in the third line thereof, and substituting in its place the word "the," and by inserting the word "thereof," after the word "meeting," in the fourth line of said section 1, and by inserting the word "the" before the word "terms," in the fifth line of said section 1, and by striking out all of said section after the word "years," in the eighth line thereof, and inserting in its place the following: "Beginning on the first Monday in January following his election and continuing until his successor is elected and qualified;" so that said section, as thus amended, shall read as follows: Section 1. Each county asylum for the chronic insane shall be governed by a board of three trustees, to be elected by the county board at the annual meeting thereof. At the first election the trustees shall be elected for the terms of one, two and three years, respectively, and thereafter one trustee shall be elected each year for a term of three years, beginning on the first Monday in January following his election, and continuing until his successor is elected and qualified.

County asylum for chronic insane, to be governed by trustees.

SECTION 2. Section 2 of said chapter 138, is hereby amended by striking out the word "said," where it occurs in the first and fourth lines of said section 2, and inserting in the place thereof the word "the," and adding to said section the following: "And until the appointee's successor is elected and qualified; and the county board at such meeting shall elect a trustee for the remainder of the term, and until his successor is elected and qualified;" so that said section 2, as amended, shall read as follows: Section 2. Should vacancies occur in the board of trustees by death or other cause, the chairman of the county board shall fill such vacancy by appointment, until the next annual meeting of the county board, and until the appointee's successor is elected and qualified; and the county board at such meeting shall elect a trustee for the remainder of the term, and until his successor is elected and qualified.

Vacancies, how filled.

SECTION 3. The terms of office of trustees of county asylums for the chronic insane, elected at the annual meeting of county boards, in the year 1892, shall be for one, two and three years, respectively, from the first Monday in January, 1893. All trustees of such county asylums shall take and subscribe the official oath or affirmation required by the constitution, and shall receive the same compensation for their services, as is allowed members of the county board.

Terms of office, oath; compensation.

SECTION 4. All acts and parts of acts in conflict with the provisions of this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1893.

CHAPTER 161.

AN ACT to amend section 2261a (chapter 460, 1889), of chapter 101, Revised Statutes of Wisconsin, relating to plats in certain counties.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends sec.
2261, R. S., as amended.

Plats in counties of over one hundred thousand, when to be approved by county board.

SECTION 1. Section 2261a (chapter 460, 1889), chapter 101, of the Revised Statutes of the state of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by adding the words "or village," after the word "city," in the third line thereof, so that said section shall read as follows: Section 2261a (chapter 460, 1889). In all cases where lands in any county, containing a population of over one hundred thousand inhabitants, and not within the limits of any city or village within said county, shall hereafter be subdivided into lots or blocks, or where streets, alleys or public grounds shall be dedicated or granted to the public, the owner or owners thereof shall, in platting the same, cause the streets and alleys in such plats to be laid out and platted to the satisfaction of the county board of such county, and shall submit such maps or plats thereof to the board of supervisors of such county for its approval; and if such map or plat shall be approved by said county board, the party or parties making such plat shall record the same, within thirty days from the date of such approval, together with the evidence of such approval; but except such plat be approved in writing endorsed thereon and subscribed by said county board and by resolution adopted by said county board, a copy of which, duly certified by the county clerk, shall be affixed to said plat
