

Revised Statutes of the state of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by striking out the words "a deputy," where they first appear therein, and substituting in lieu thereof the words "one or more deputies," so that the same when amended shall read as follows: Section 741. Every such clerk shall appoint one or more deputies, which appointments shall be approved by the judge of the circuit court, but be revocable by the clerk at pleasure; such appointments and revocation shall be in writing and filed in his office; such deputies shall aid him in the discharge of the duties of his office under his direction; and in the absence of the clerk from his office or from the court, such deputies may perform all the duties of the clerk; or in case of a vacancy by resignation, death, removal, or other cause, the deputy first named or appointed shall perform all the duties of clerk, until such vacancy shall be filled. The clerk shall be responsible on his official bond for all official default or misconduct of his deputies.
