CHAPTER 91.

AN ACT to amend section 14, of chapter 168, laws of 1887, as amended by chapter 417, laws of 1891, entitled "An act to create a third municipal court for Barron county."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 14, of chapter 168, laws of 1887, as amended by chapter 417, laws of 1891, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 14. The same fees in all actions, civil and criminal, that are now allowed by law to justices of the peace, it shall be lawful for said municipal judge to charge and collect, and one dollar in addition thereto for every civil action or proceeding in his court. For his services in conducting criminal trials and examinations of offenders, he shall receive a salary of three hundred dollars per year, for the term of said judge, commencing on the first Monday of May, A. D. 1891, payable quarterly, at the end of each quarter out of the treasury of said county, and thereafter a salary of not less than three hundred dollars per year, payable in like manner, to be fixed by the board of supervisors of said county, as provided in section 694, of the Revised Statutes; provided, however, that the board of supervisors of said county, may at any annual meeting, by resolution, abolish the salary of said third municipal judge. Said resolution shall be adopted by a majority of all the members of said board, and take effect at the expiration of the term of office of the then incumbent. All fines imposed and collected by said judge for the punishment of any criminal offense under the laws of this state shall

CHAPTER 92.

AN ACT to amend section 14, of chapter 167, laws of 1887, entitled an "Act to create a second municipal court for Barron county."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Amends sec. 14,
ch. 167, laws of 1887.

Municipal judge, fees of

Salary may be provided.

SECTION 1. Section 14, of chapter 167, laws of 1887, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 14. The same fees in all actions, civil and criminal, that are now allowed by law to justices of the peace, it shall be lawful for said municipal judge to charge and collect, and one dollar in addition thereto for every civil action or proceeding in his court. In place of the fees, to which said second municipal judge may be entitled for services in conducting criminal trials and examinations of offenders, the county board of supervisors may at any annual meeting, by resolution, fix a salary, not exceeding three hundred dollars per year, payable quarterly, at the end of each quarter, out of the treasury of said county. Said resolution shall be adopted by a majority of all the members of said board, and shall take effect at the expiration of the term of office of the then incumbent. All fines imposed and collected by said judge for the punishment of any criminal offense under the laws of this state, shall be paid over to the treasurer of said county in like manner as is provided by law for justices of the peace.
