CHAPTER 2.

AN ACT relating to circuit courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

When another judge may be called to aid in trial of causes.

SECTION 1. Whenever the causes at issue and on the calendar at any term of a circuit court for any county in this state shall exceed one hundred in number, the judge holding such circuit court may enter an order that another circuit judge be called in to aid in the trial of causes. Thereupon any circuit judge of the state may, at the request of the judge holding the circuit, attend at such term, and both said judges may hold court and exercise all the powers of presiding judge, and try cases, separately, at the same time; provided, that both judges shall not try cases by jury at the same time.

Made his duty to attend when called on.

SECTION 2. It shall be the duty of any circuit judge upon an order and request made pursuant to the foregoing section, to attend and aid in the transaction of business at such term so far as the proper discharge of his duties in his own circuit shall permit him to do so.

Expenses to be paid by county.

SECTION 3. Whenever a circuit judge shall be required, pursuant to any law, to hold
