CHAPTER 119.

AN ACT to provide for the payment of the expenses of the attorney-general and his assistant in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Whenever the duties of the attorney-general or his assistant shall be required outside of the city of Madison, there shall be refunded to them all expenses actually and necessarily made in the discharge of their official duties. The amount of each account for such expense, stated in detail and verified by affidavit, shall be audited by the secretary of state and paid out of the treasury.

Expenses of attorney-general and assistant may be paid by the state.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1895.

CHAPTER 120.

AN ACT to amend section 2282, of Sanborn and Berryman's statutes in relation to the execution of wills.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 2282, of Sanborn and Berryman's statutes is hereby amended by adding

Wills to be in writing and attested after Jan. 1, 1866.

thereto after the word "state" in line two of said section 2282, the following words: "after January 1st, 1896" and at the end of line six of said section, after the word "witnesses" the following words: "in the presence of each other," so that when section 2282 is amended it shall read as follows: Section 2282. No will made within this state after January 1st, 1896, except such nuncupative wills as are mentioned in this chapter shall be effectual to pass any estate, whether real or personal, nor to change or in any way affect the same, unless it be in writing and signed by the testator or by some person in his presence and by his express direction, and attested and subscribed in the presence of the testator by two or more competent witnesses in the presence of each other, and if the witnesses are competent at the time of attesting the execution of the will, their subsequent incompetency from whatever cause it may arise, shall not prevent the probate and allowance of the will, if it be otherwise satisfactorily proved.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 3, 1895.
