CHAPTER 147.

AN ACT to amend section 2479, of Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes, relating to mileage of jurors in county courts.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Mileage of jurors, how computed.

SECTION 1. Section 2479, of Sanborn and Berryman's annotated statutes of the state of Wisconsin, is hereby amended by striking out the words "but no mileage" where they occur in the third line of said section, and inserting in place thereof, the words "and six cents per mile for each mile actually traveled in going and returning by the most usual route, but shall be paid for no day when court is not in session unless specially ordered by the presiding judge," so that said section when so
