CHAPTER 183.

AN ACT to authorize cities to pay the mayor a salary.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Certain cities authorized to pay their mayors salaries.

SECTION 1. Section 16, of chapter 312, of the laws of 1893, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 16. The common council shall by ordinance provide such salary, or compensation, for the officers and employes of the city as it shall deem proper; provided, that in cities of the second, third and fourth class no salary shall be paid to the mayor or members of the common council except when ordered by a vote of three-fourths of the members-elect of such common council. It shall at the first regular meeting in February, fix the amount of salary which shall be received by every city officer entitled to a salary, who may be elected or appointed in the city during the ensuing year, which shall not be increased or diminished during the term of office for which such officer shall be elected or appointed; the salary shall be paid out of the city treasury monthly, at the end of each month. All salaries, the amounts whereof have been heretofore fixed by the common council, or heretofore established by law, shall be and remain the salaries of such officers until the common council shall otherwise provide; provided, however, that where any new city shall have been incorporated and officers thereof elected or appointed, the common council shall have power at any regular meeting of such common council, during the term of office of such officer, so elected or appointed, to declare and fix the amount of compensation that such officer shall receive.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

CHAPTER 184.

AN ACT to amend subdivision 1, of section 2, of chapter 268, laws of 1891, entitled, "An act to enable religious and church corporations to form fire insurance companies for the purpose of insuring church property."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Subdivision 1, of section 2, of chapter 268, of the laws of 1891, is hereby amended by inserting therein after the word "state" in the second line of said subdivision the words "and elsewhere," and after the word "loss" in the fourth line of said subdivision the words "or damage," and after the word "lightning" in the fourth line of said subdivision the words "or other casualties," and by striking out the word "and" in the fourth line of said subdivision, so that said subdivision, when so amended, shall read as follows: Subdivision 1.

Religious and church organizations authorized to form fire insurance companies.
