CHAPTER 215.

AN ACT in relation to appeals to the supreme court in certain cases.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. No appeal shall hereafter be taken to the supreme court in any case from any judgment when the amount involved, exclusive of costs, is less than one hundred dollars, unless the judge of the court in which such judgment was rendered shall certify that the case necessarily involves the decision of some question or point of law of such doubt and difficulty as to require a decision of the same by the supreme court, or that it necessarily involves the construction or interpretation of some provision of the constitution of the United States or of the constitution of this state; and in all such

No appeal to supreme court
for less than $100 judgment
unless it involves a point
of law.
