CHAPTER 219.

AN ACT to allow receivers, assignees, guardians, committees, trustees, executors, administrators and other fiduciaries to include in the lawful expense of executing their trusts such reasonable sums paid a company, authorized under the law of this state so to do, for becoming their surety, as may be by the court allowed, not exceeding two per centum per annum on the amount of the obligation by such company executed.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. That any receiver, assignee, guardian, committee, trustee, executor, administrator or other fiduciary required by law or the order of any court, or judge, to give a bond or other obligation as such, may include as a part of the lawful expense of executing his trust, such reasonable sum paid a company, authorized under the laws of this state so to do, for becoming his surety on such bond or obligation as may be allowed by the court in which, or the judge before whom, he is allowed or required to account, not exceeding, however, two per centum per annum on the amount of such bond or obligation by such surety executed; and in all actions or proceedings the party entitled to recover costs may include therein such reasonable sum as may have been paid by him to such company for executing or guaranteeing any bond or obligation therein.

Reasonable expenses of receiver, assignee, committee, etc., defined.

SECTION 2. All acts or parts of acts inconsistent with this act are hereby repealed.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved April 13, 1895.
