CHAPTER 239.

AN ACT to authorize the governor to appoint commissioners for the promotion of the uniformity of legislation.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Commissioners to be appointed to promote uniformity of legislation.

SECTION 1. Within sixty days after the passage of this act the governor shall appoint three commissioners, who are hereby constituted a board of commissioners by name and style of "commissioners for the promotion of uniformity of legislation in the United States." It shall be the duty of said commission to examine the subjects of marriage and divorce, insolvency, the form of notarial certificates, descent and distribution of property, acknowledgment of deeds, execution and probate of wills, commercial paper and other subjects on which uniformity is desirable; to ascertain the best means to effect uniformity in the laws of the state, and to represent the state of Wisconsin in conventions of like commissions heretofore appointed or to be appointed by other states; to consider and draft uniform laws to be submitted for approval and adoption of the several states; and to devise and recommend such other course of action as shall best accomplish the purpose of this act; said board of commissioners shall make report to the governor and the legislature.

Shall make report to governor and legislature.

SECTION 2. Said commission shall be permanent; one of said commissioners shall be appointed for the term of one year, one for the term of two years, and one for the term of three years, and thereafter successors of said commissioners shall be appointed for the full term of three years.

Commission to be permanent.

SECTION 3. Chapter 83, of the laws of 1893, in so far as the same conflicts with this act, is hereby repealed.

SECTION 4. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
