CHAPTER 365.

AN ACT authorizing counties containing a population of over two hundred thousand inhabitants to erect an armory for the use of the Wisconsin National Guard.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Authorizing counties of over 200,000 inhabitants to erect armory.

SECTION 1. The board of supervisors of any county having a population of over two hundred thousand inhabitants in which all or a majority of the officers and enlisted men of any regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard reside may erect a suitable armory for the purpose of drill and for the safe keeping of the arms, equipments, uniforms and other military property furnished by the state, and for public meetings and conventions when such use will not interfere with the use of such building by the national guard, plans and specifications for which armory shall be inspected and approved by the governor, adjutant-general and quartermaster-general, who shall file with the board of supervisors of such county a certificate of such inspection and approval prior to the erection thereof.

Expense of armories, how paid.

SECTION 2. The expense of armories, including the necessary care, fuel and lights shall be paid by the county whereinall or a majority of the officers and enlisted men of any regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard reside. For the purpose of paying the expense of maintaining armories, as aforesaid, the board of supervisors of such county shall appropriate and allow the necessary amount quarterly each year, and said boards are hereby authorized and required to make such levy as will be sufficient to pay said expenses.

SECTION 3. All money heretofore or which may be hereafter appropriated or directed to be paid to any company located in any county erecting or providing such armory building, for the purpose of paying rent, shall be paid by the treasurer of the state of Wisconsin directly to the county treasurer of said county, instead of to the officers of the different companies, which money shall be received by said county as payment in full for the use and maintenance of said building, as herein provided.

Money heretofore or hereafter paid for rent shall be paid by state treasurer to county treasurer.

SECTION 4. The board of supervisors of any county in which all or a majority of the officers and enlisted men of any regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard reside may purchase land and build armories in the same manner as they are now authorized by law to build other county buildings, and when unable to agree upon the price of land with its owner, may, if in their opinion necessary, appropriate land for the purpose of building armories in the same manner as they are now authorized by law to appropriate real estate for other county buildings.

Board of supervisors may purchase land and build armories as other county buildings are built.

SECTION 5. Such armory, when erected, shall be under the control and charge of the governor, the quartermaster-general and commanding officer of the regiment of the Wisconsin National Guard for which it has been provided, and the said commanding officer shall cause to be deposited therein all arms, uniforms and equipments received from time to time for the use of the command. Such governor, quartermaster-general and regimental command may from time to time make such orders, rules and regulations as they deem proper for the observance of all officers and persons having charge of such armory or occupying any part thereof.

Amending sec.
50, ch. 292,
laws of 1893.

SECTION 6. Section 50, chapter 292, laws of 1893, is amended by adding thereto after the final word 'use' the following: "Except when an armory has been provided for the entire regiment or battalion to which the company may be attached."

SECTION 7. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
