

words "who has been committed thereto as a vagrant, or by reason of incorrigible or vicious conduct," and said section, thus amended, shall read as follows: "Section 4963. The superintendent of said school shall charge to each of the several counties in the state, in a book provided by him for that purpose, the sum of one dollar per week for the care and maintenance of each person in said school, from each of such counties respectively; and the costs of the original commitment of all persons to said school shall be chargeable to the county from which the person committed to said school is sent; and the superintendent of said school shall procure the arrest and return of any person escaping therefrom; and any justice of the peace, marshal or constable, upon information of such escape, shall arrest and return any such fugitive as above mentioned."

Charge for care of keep of boys in the industrial school.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1897.

No. 339, S.]

[Published April 1, 1897.

CHAPTER 132.

AN ACT to provide better protection to state fish hatcheries, grounds, fish and equipments.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Any person who shall enter upon the grounds of any state fish hatchery, for the purpose of unlawfully killing, taking any fish therefrom, shall be deemed guilty of a misde-

Penalty for killing fish in state fish hatchery.

meanor, and on conviction, punished by fine of not less than ten, nor more than twenty-five dollars, or by imprisonment not less than ten nor more than thirty days, in the discretion of the court.

Penalty for taking fish, from grounds connected with fish hatchery.

SECTION 2. Any person who shall unlawfully, and without proper authority, kill, take or catch any fish from any waters or grounds, belonging to or connected with any state fish hatchery, shall be deemed guilty of larceny, and on conviction, punished as provided in section four thousand four hundred and fifteen (4415) of the revised statutes as amended.

Penalty for injury to fish ponds, etc.

SECTION 3. Any person who shall injure any fish, or in any manner interfere harmfully with the ponds, streams, troughs or other property of a state fish hatchery, without lawful authority so to do, shall be deemed guilty of a misdemeanor, and on conviction be punished by fine not less than five dollars nor more than one hundred dollars; but this section shall in no wise change or affect any liability for arson or other burnings, nor burglary or other breakings, nor larceny of any property.

Superintendent authorized to summarily arrest offenders.

SECTION 4. The superintendent, or other person in charge of any fish hatchery, is hereby empowered and required summarily and without process, to arrest any person found upon the grounds of any state fish hatchery, engaged in the violation of this act, and to deliver such person forthwith to some proper officer for prosecution.

SECTION 5. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 30, 1897.