

No. 182, A.] [Published March 12, 1897.

CHAPTER 29.

AN ACT to amend chapter 138, laws of 1881, entitled, "An act to amend section 752, of the revised statutes of 1878, relating to district attorney."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 1, of chapter 138, of the laws of 1881, is hereby amended by adding to said section after the word "party," the following: "And to attend to the settlement of bills of exceptions in cases which he has tried during his term of office, after his term of office has expired; for which services, so rendered, he shall receive compensation from the county, where elected, not to exceed twenty-five dollars per day for time actually expended."

Requiring district attorney to settle bills of exceptions in cases tried during his term, after said term has expired; also fixing compensation.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1897.

No. 202, A.] [Published March 12, 1897.

CHAPTER 30.

AN ACT to authorize the state treasurer to cover certain special deposits into the general fund.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

Whereas, Certain special deposits have been made with the state treasurer, to-wit: David

Special deposits of volunteer aid fund; names of depositors.

Bullum, company "K," fifth regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry: One United States 10-40 bond, with coupons since March, 1866, one hundred dollars. One United States 10-40 bond, with coupons since March, 1866, fifty dollars. Deposit certificate of M. Von Baumbach, Milwaukee, fifty dollars; currency, forty-two dollars and seventy cents; total, two hundred and forty-two dollars and seventy cents. Charles Heinrich, company "D," thirty-second regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry: Currency, ninety-three dollars. Fred Kirshenbeler, company "F," twenty-first regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry: One United States 10-40 bond, with coupons since March, 1866, one hundred dollars; currency, sixteen dollars and twenty-eight cents; total, one hundred and sixteen dollars and twenty-eight cents. Mary Ann Pierson: Volunteer aid fund, draft for five dollars. Harriet C. Knox: Volunteer aid fund, draft for three dollars and sixty-seven cents. Heirs of George Morehead, late company "K," fortieth regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry: Currency, fifty-three dollars and five cents. James Towle, late company "G," sixteenth regiment, Wisconsin Volunteer Infantry, an insane soldier: Currency, eighty-seven dollars and twenty cents; and,

Whereas, None of the owners of said special deposits or their heirs have ever claimed said money; and,

Whereas, Said special deposits are kept in separate accounts in the office of the state treasurer, therefore, be it enacted,

Authorizing state treasurer to deposit into general fund.

SECTION 1. That the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to reduce all of said special deposits to cash and deposit the same in the general fund.

Authorizing said treasurer to pay deposits to depositors or heirs when legal proofs made satisfy attorney general and are filed in office of secretary of state.

SECTION 2. That the state treasurer is hereby authorized and directed to pay any of said special deposits to the said depositors or their lawful heirs, whenever the proper legal proofs shall have been made to the satisfaction of the attorney general and filed in the office of the secretary of state.

SECTION 3. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.

Approved March 10, 1897.

No. 247, S.]

[Published March 11, 1897.

CHAPTER 31.

AN ACT authorizing the common council of cities to change the number and boundaries of wards by ordinances.

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. The council of any city of the third or fourth classes, incorporated under special charter, may change the number and boundaries of the wards in such city by ordinance adopted by a vote of at least three-fourths of its members; provided, that such ordinance shall be introduced at a regular meeting of such council, and before final action is taken thereon shall be published at least once each week for four successive weeks in the official paper, if any, and if not, in some newspaper published in such city, if there be one, otherwise in some newspaper to be designated by the council; and when the boundaries and number of wards are fixed by an ordinance under this section the number of wards in such city and the boundaries thereof, or of any of said wards, shall not again be changed for a period of three years, except by adding thereto such territory as may at any time be added to the city, and provided further, that the territory of the wards shall be contiguous and Publication of notice required for change of ward and boundaries.