CHAPTER 44.

AN ACT to amend chapter 63, of the laws of the state of Wisconsin for the year 1895, entitled, "An act to create a municipal court for the county of Oneida."

The people of the state of Wisconsin, represented in senate and assembly, do enact as follows:

SECTION 1. Section 6, of chapter 63, of the laws of Wisconsin for the year 1895, is hereby amended so as to read as follows: Section 6. The municipal judge of the county of Oneida shall have cognizance of, and jurisdiction to hear, try and determine all actions and proceedings at law, wherein the amount of debt, damages, demand, penalty or forfeiture shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars, actions to recover the possession of personal property, with damages for the unlawful taking or detention thereof, wherein the value of the property claimed shall not exceed the sum of five hundred dollars. Said municipal judge shall have and exercise within the city of Rhinelander and town of Pelican in said county, the criminal jurisdiction of justices of the peace in the state of Wisconsin, and the justices of the peace in the city of Rhinelander and town of Pelican, in said county, shall not have or exercise any criminal jurisdiction whatever. Said judge shall further have all the jurisdiction, authority, powers and rights, given by law to justices of the peace, and shall be subject to the same prohibitions and penalties as justices of the peace. The proceedings and practice of said court shall, in all respects, be governed as far as practicable, by the laws relating to justices' courts of this state, and transcripts of the judgments of the municipal court may be filed and docketed with the clerk of the circuit court for said county, with the same effect as transcripts of judgments rendered by justices of the peace of said county may be, and appeals, civil and criminal, from said court, may be taken in the same manner and with like effect as are provided by law from courts of justices of the peace. Nothing herein contained shall be construed to give said municipal judge cognizance of any actions mentioned in subdivisions 1, 2 and 3, of section 3573, of chapter 154, of the revised statutes.

Jurisdiction of the municipal judge of Oneida county defined.

SECTION 2. This act shall take effect and be in force from and after its passage and publication.
