CHAPTER 205.

AN ACT to provide for the collection, arrangement and display of the manufactures, art and products of the state of Wisconsin, at the Ohio Centennial and Northwest Territory Exposition, providing for the appointment of a commission to prepare plans for and supervise the same, and report to the next legislature.

Whereas, Ohio was the first state to be formed out of the great Northwest Territory and has provided, by an act of its legislature passed April 28, 1898, for an exposition to be held at Toledo, in the state of Ohio, in commemoration of the first centennial of its admission as a state into the union; and Preamble.

Whereas, it is of great importance that the natural resources, industrial development and progress of the arts and sciences of the state of Wisconsin, which state formed a part of the northwest territory, should be fully and creditably displayed at said exposition, and as it will require large preliminary investigation and work in securing information and in preparing plans in order that the legislature may act intelligently and effectively in assisting to make the display worthy of this state and its people; now therefore,
